Dear FFF Fly Tier:

The Federation of Fly Fishers, Southeastern Council would like to extend to you an invitation to be a demonstration tier at the 2013 Southeastern Flyfishing Festival. The Festival is being held at the Ramsey Center at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, North Carolina, on May 16th - 18th, 2013. The Festival fly tying demonstration dates are Friday and Saturday 17-18, 2013. There are NO ON-SITE ACCOMODATIONS at WCU. Attached is a list of SOME local accommodation options.

The Festival is broken into four tying sessions (Friday AM, Friday PM, Saturday AM and Saturday PM). We have space for 20 tiers in each session. Please select the sessions you prefer to tie. Please fill out the requested information below and email it to me at flytying@southeastfff.org (or snail mail it to me) by April 30, 2013. I will confirm all tier schedules by email. For those of you that do not have email, please mail your choices back to the above address.

We also need biographical information for inclusion into the Festival Program. Let me know if you prefer we use last years biography. If you want to update it, limit it to no more than 100 words and either email or regular mail it back to me. Being a Demonstration Tyer at the Festival gets you FREE General Registration for the event and FREE admission to the showing of the Fly Fishing Film Tour.

The only requirement to tie at the Southeastern Council Flyfishing Festival is to be a proficient fly tier who loves to demonstrate his/her skills and who is able to attend on the Festival dates.

I look forward to seeing you in May at the Ramsey Center at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, NC!
