Seminar - 9 am to 1:30 pm Hatch Strategies & Reading the Water Seminars

When you find trout feeding on a hatch, the right fly is a small part of the puzzle. Sealing the deal is more strategy and technique than it is entomology. Surprisingly the same proven techniques work regardless of what fly is hatching.

If the fish aren't rising you need to know how to read the water. Learn how to catch trout when you don't know exactly where they are.
