

The FLY FISHING MUSEUM of the SOUTHERN APPALACHIANS

Is Proud To Announce Our
GRAND OPENING
JUNE 6, 2015 10:00 AM

Ribbon Cutting
Tour
Lunch Provided
Casting Clinic (1-4 PM)
Casting for Hope (Registration for June 7 Event)

For Inquiries or to make a Charitable Donation Contact:

(828) 788-0034
516 Tsali Blvd, PO Box 1838
Cherokee, NC 28719
info@cherokeesmokies.com

Building a Monument to the Rich Heritage of Fly Fishing in the Southern Appalachians

First drift boat built and used in the Southern Appalachians. Bob Nanny and Dick Morgan processing incoming rods and reels

EXHIBITS IN PROGRESS

Tailrace Drift Boat Fly Fishing in the Southern Appalachians

(Sponsored by TVA)

Featured Movies: Fly Fishing in the Linville Gorge (1959) and Fly Fishing Private Waters (1997)

Floating and Fly Fishing

(Sponsored by Tuckasegee Fly Shop)

Southern Appalachian Waters

Collection of Flies and Poppers of the Southern Appalachians;

Realistic Flies (coming soon)

Rod-Making

(Donated by Tim Wilhelm)

Collection of Fly Rods and Fly Reels

Gear: Stream Attire, Landing and Wading Tools, Streamside Gadgets

Gamefish of the Southern Appalachians

Fly Tying

Fly Tying Tools and Materials

Entomology

(Donated by the Appalachian State University: TU 5 Rivers Anglers Club)

Tenkara (coming soon)

(Sponsored by Mountain Tenkara)

“Stream Blazers”

“Uncle Thad” Norris, Joe Messinger Sr., George “Cap” Wiese, “Uncle Mark” Cathey, Phil Bracewell, Cato Holler, Don and Dwight Howell and many more

Children’s Corner (scavenger hunts)

Demo Corner

(Sponsored by Temple Fork Outfitters)

Casting for Hope

(Sponsored by Casting for Hope)

Museum Map Center

(Sponsored By Saint Clair Mapping)

Aquarium Room (coming soon)